

TAKE UP YOUR POSITION ON OUR TEAM

Credit Structuring Group Trainee- h/f

Your environment:

Societe Generale Corporate & Investment Banking (SG CIB) is one of the three pillars of Societe Generale. This internship position would be within our Cross Structuring Group with the bank's markets departments.

This is an opportunity to work with seniors on structuring, distribution, tax and regulation issues relating to various financial products and wrappers. The team is focused on all structuring aspects involving inter alia regulatory, legal, fiscal, accounting and financial aspects of structuring innovative products.

Your role :

Within the Cross Structuring Group, you will:

- Assist senior structurer in assessing regulatory, fiscal and market environment, liaise with internal support functions
- Assist in the formulisation of information and creation of knowledge database
- Assist in the follow up of documentation and project launches

Your profile:

You're about to have a degree from an engineering or business school and ideally you have knowledge on tax/legal area (in particular for Russia and CIS).

You have experience within UK IFA or wealth managers private banks structuring or financial institutions gained through previous internships/work experience in derivatives or structured products. You're fluent in English and Russian. With analytical skills, your ability to work under pressure with flexibility and team spirit will help you to achieve your missions successfully.

Other Requirements: -Basic computer skills (word, excel, powerpoint)

-Good interpersonal skills

-Good written and oral communication including presentation skills

Start Date : Immediatly

Location : London

APPLY ON LON-HR-RESSOURCETEAM@SGIB.COM

All positions are open to disabled people