

Cross Asset Structuring - Internship

Starting date	Immediate
Job function	Market Finance
Industry	Corporate and Investment Banking
Entity	SG CIB
Location	United Kingdom
Jobtype	Internship
Reference	SG070113-MF

Summary

This is an opportunity to work in a multi-profile team on the structuring of various financial products across asset classes for the client in the Middle East region.

The team works alongside the pricing and sales teams to put together the format and packaging of various complex structures with the purpose of offering the most appropriate product for the client and SG.

A strong focus will be on capital market and derivatives products.

Main responsibilities

- Assist senior structurers to put in place products
- Assist in the creation of marketing materials

Degree of autonomy

Level of authority

- Medium

Internal & external contacts

- Internal SG Employees
- External Service Providers

Specific context

- Reliability and attention to detail are mandatory
- Dynamism and high motivation

CANDIDATE PROFILE

Education

- Masters in Finance, Engineering or Mathematics

Past experience

- Experience within Financial Institutions gained through previous internships / work experience in Derivatives or Structured Products area is highly desirable

Languages

- Fluent English
- Fluent French
-

Technical skills

- Proven analytical / quantitative skills
- Proven computer literacy (MS Word, Powerpoint, Excel, VBA)
- Excellent interpersonal skills
- Good written and oral communication including presentation skills