

Region Europe
Country France
City Paris
Offer Long Term Internship -6 months
Department Global Markets Business Lines
Role Trading

Main duties /responsibilities :

BNP Paribas Corporate Institutional Banking ®CIB® is a leading European investment bank with global leadership in many of our businesses. We are part of the BNP Paribas Group, a financial institution with solid foundations and a proven ability to adapt to change. If you are thinking about a career in investment banking, there is no better place to begin your journey than with BNP Paribas CIB. With nearly 20,000 employees in over 50 countries, we can offer you an exciting start to your career. Global Markets is BNP Paribas' capital markets business, delivering investment solutions across a wide range of asset classes and industry leading services.

As world leader in derivatives, BNP Paribas Global Markets offers clients tailored products, stateoftheart trading, processing systems, research and strategic advising from its teams of experts, while also maintaining a sustainable economic model. The CSU Trading team is looking for a 6 months intern starting from flexible in 2020.

Complex Structures and Underlyings ®CSU® perimeter consists of :

The Systematic Strategies desk: Quantitative strategies & Custom indices business on equities, FX and rate underlying (vanilla strategies, vol control, thematic equities indices, rolling futures...).

Hybrids desk: Structured products on Cross Assets including underlying on Equities, FX, IR, Bonds, Credit or Commodities.

Funds Derivatives desk : Structured products on UCITS funds.

In his role within CSU team" the candidate will:

Help on the various books management process including: the begin of day, Risks analysis, P&L explanation, end of day, ...

Check the financial terms of the clients transaction and validate payoffs and flows.

Help and support QIS structuring teams to design and backtest new systematic strategies to complete our offer.

Define the pricing and the model parameters for each strategy" in accordance with the appropriate and optimal hedging method.

Implement the trading and risk management setup for the new strategies" in collaboration with Research and IT teams.

Your profile:

Bac +4/5 student from an Engineering school or University

Strong interest and knowledge of financial markets

High motivation and interest by the exotic trading environment

Have financial quantitative and IT knowledge especially in Python.

Ability to work under pressure.

Fluency in French and English, any other language is a plus

Rigorous, dynamic and motivated candidate with good interpersonal skills

Good knowledge of Excel, VBA/programming is a plus

Contact :

Please send your CV to: ghaith.benachour@bnpparibas.com